

I am very happy with the way the Indiana Phone Law works. It keeps the unwanted telamarketers off my phone line. I understand that it is a job and everyone needs one, I've done that tpye of work, and I also don't want someone calling my home and trying to make deals I don't need. In short, leave the Indiana Phone Law the way it is.